New Castle County
Department of Special Services

"Iron Hill Park is a place with a very interesting history. Learn about early Native American residents, the iron mine established there in the 1700s, and visit the nearby Iron Hill Museum to discover more about the area's past. The park's more recent history includes the addition of a bark park, disc golf course, and improved hiking trails. I am happy to welcome you to Iron Hill Park."

Iron Hill Park has so much to enjoy!

▪ Dense Forest and Winding Trails

No matter what the season, visitors are treated to a cornucopia of sight when they enter the woods. Feel free to hike or walk the trails, or just sit down on a rock and enjoy the sounds of the leaves rustling, the birds singing, and the scurry of squirrels as they run up and down the trees. Splendid colors abound and breathtaking views appear at every turn. Be sure to bring along a camera or an artist's palette to capture any one of the many delights you will discover.

▪ Lively Bark Park

Visitors are encouraged to bring their furry friends to our lively Bark Park. Within two fenced areas, for large and small dogs, you can allow your canines to run free and to socialize with other "like-minded" pets! Throw a ball and have your dog chase it; sit down and make a friend with another pet owner! You are sure to enjoy this fun amenity.

▪ Fun Playground

Children are sure to love the new playgrounds installed at Iron Hill Park. They can run, climb, swing and slide to their heart's content on the brightly-colored and safe play equipment.

▪ Challenging Disc Golf Course

For those visitors who enjoy an organized sport, a disc golf course with 18 holes has been put into place. Join the fun as you toss and flip your discs while getting a workout covering the expansive layout. This course will challenge your skills and your patience! Two practice pins are set up near the parking lot - so give it a try!

The Delaware Disc Golfers hold events in the park. Refer to their website www.dediscgolf.com for a schedule and volunteer opportunities. A course map with scorecard is also available online.

▪ Convenient Pavilion

Have your next cook-out at the Pavilion at Iron Hill Park! There are grills, trash barrels and tables for your use. Please call the Department of Community Services at (302) 571-4006 to reserve the Pavilion for your group activity. Fee charged for reservation.

▪ Hiking Trails

The packed earth multi-use trails, for pedestrians and mountain bikers, wind around the hill. The trails include varying degrees of difficulty.

The Mason-Dixon Trail, which runs the length of Iron Hill Park, is part of the system that connects the Appalachian Trail with the Brandywine Trail near Chadds Ford, PA.

The Delaware Trail Spinners, a mountain bike club, volunteer with trail maintenance. See their website at www.trailspinners.org for information about their events at the park.
